

Curriculum Vitae

Prof. Dr. Ulf Papenfuß

Ulf Papenfuß is Professor for Public Management & Public Policy at the Zeppelin University Friedrichshafen since September 2016 (puma.zu.de). Previously, he was Juniorprofessor for Public Management at the University of Leipzig since 2013. From 2008 to 2013 he was research assistant at the Chair for Public Administration and the Chair for Business Administration at the Helmut-Schmidt-University in Hamburg. From 1999 to 2013 he was an officer in the military police of the German Federal Armed Forces. After training and service as Officer, he studied business administration and political/administrative sciences from 2002 to 2006 at the Helmut-Schmidt-Universität and afterwards served as officer in Cologne and Berlin.

His research focuses, among other areas, on sustainable public corporate governance, integrated digital governance in corporate group/network structures, self-regulation, governance innovations and sustainable change in digital transformation processes and outcome orientated control. His research findings have been published in numerous international journals such as Governance, Public Management Review, Public Administration Review, Corporate Governance: An International Review, Accounting, Auditing & Accountability Journal, Public Administration among others. He has led many research projects with third-party funds. Quality newspapers and media have regularly and intensively reported on his research results in the last years. In international research networks he is, amongst others, engaged as deputy chair of the Scientific Commission Public Management of the Association of University Professors of Business Administration, co-chair of the research group „Governing and Managing Hybridity“ and Co-Editor of the book „Corporatisation Corporatization in Local Government: Context, Evidence and Perspectives from 19 Countries“. He is the academic program head of the master's degree program in Public Management with optional specializations in “Municipal Enterprises” or “Digitalization.” Under his scientific direction numerous big conferences have been realized, at the moment, amongst others, he leads the annual „Future Salon Public Corporate Governance“ at the Zeppelin University Friedrichshafen. Professor Papenfuß is initiator and scientific chair of the expert commission German Public Corporate Governance-Modelcode which is also published in an English version and conducts the scientific accompaniment (pcg-musterkodex.de/home-englisch/).